

Face Up Pai Gow Poker Rules

1. Face Up Pai Gow Poker is a Pai Gow Poker variant played with a 53-card deck, consisting of a standard 52 card deck and one joker. The joker may either complete a straight, flush, straight flush or act as an ace.
2. Minimum and maximum betting limits and paytables will be posted at the table.
3. All regular Pai Gow Poker rules will be followed with the addition of the options listed here.
4. Face Up Pai Gow Poker plays like conventional Pai Gow Poker, except in which all the dealer cards are exposed first.
 - a. If the dealer has exactly an ace-high hand Pai Gow, then the hand will automatically result in a push (tie).
 - b. Player's do not pay commission on winning hands
5. To begin each round, players must make their standard Pai Gow wagers. They may also make the Fortune Bonus, Ace High bonus and/or Progressive wager.
6. The Fortune Bonus – The Fortune Bonus bet considers the best hand possible among the player's seven cards and is reconciled against the approved posted payable.
7. Envy Bonus – When a Player wagers $5.00 or more on the Fortune Bonus they may qualify for the Envy Bonus.
 - a. All qualifying Envy Bonus wagers receive the Envy Bonus prize excluding the player who had the hand containing the winning triggering event. Players win the Envy Bonus when a player at the table receives a four of a kind or higher, excluding the dealer and his/own hand.
 - b. Before the cards are dealt, the dealer will place the "Envy" lammer in front of all betting circles with qualifying bets for the Envy Bonus ($5 or more).

8. The Ace-High Bonus – The Player wins the Ace-High Bonus wager if the dealer's seven cards are an Ace-High Pai Gow. Paytables will be posted at the gaming table.
9. The Progressive Wager – This is an optional $1 wager. Progressive Wagers will be paid according to the payable posted at the table.
10. After all packets of cards are dealt, the dealer exposes their seven cards and sets it in accordance to the house way.
11. After the dealer's hand is set and it's determined their hand doesn't contain an Ace-High Pai Gow, the players set their seven-card hand and standard Pai Gow play continues.
 - a. Players making wagers must remain at the table until the hand has been completely reconciled.
12. If the dealer's hand is an Ace-High Pai Gow, all player main wagers are pushed.
13. While reconciling the standard Pai Gow poker wagers, the dealer also reconciles the Fortune Bonus, Ace-High bonus and Progressive wagers.
 - a. If the player's hand qualifies for payouts, the dealer pays the player according to the posted pay table.
14. Aggregate Payoffs
 - a. A maximum aggregate amount that is payable per table limit or player limit will be established and a sign will be posted at the table explaining the details of the aggregate win limit.
15. Players will be notified of any changes to pay tables or wagering options through a revised posting at the table.
16. Side betting between or amongst players, with or against the house, is prohibited.
